

DGSB Fiction Favourites

The Maze Runner
James Dashner

You've seen the film, now read the book!

Why not try some of the recommendations in this leaflet.
All titles available from the School Library.

If you have some suggestions of your own
please let us know.

Ground-breaking action!

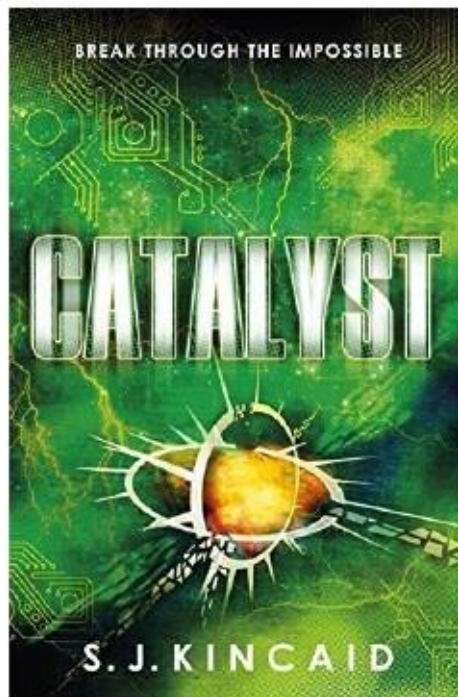

Military action and adventure.

Mystery and action.

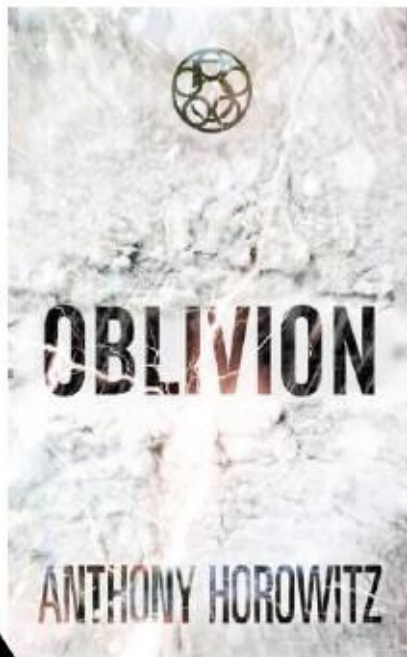

Gritty new adventure!

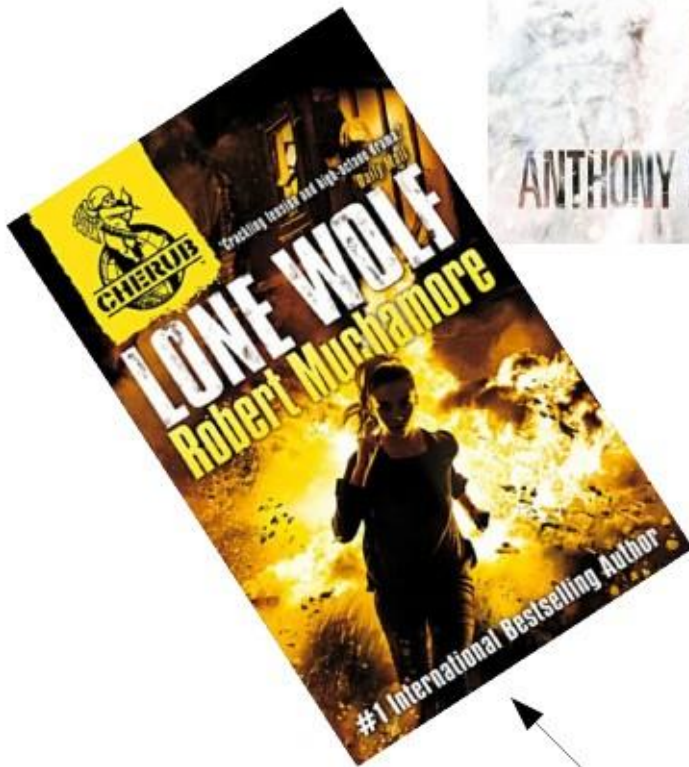

Final one in the trilogy.

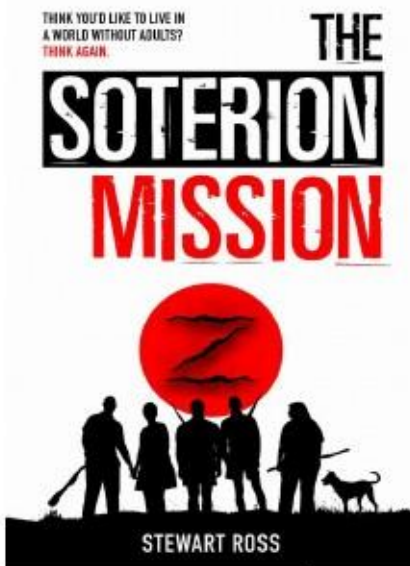

Fight for survival!

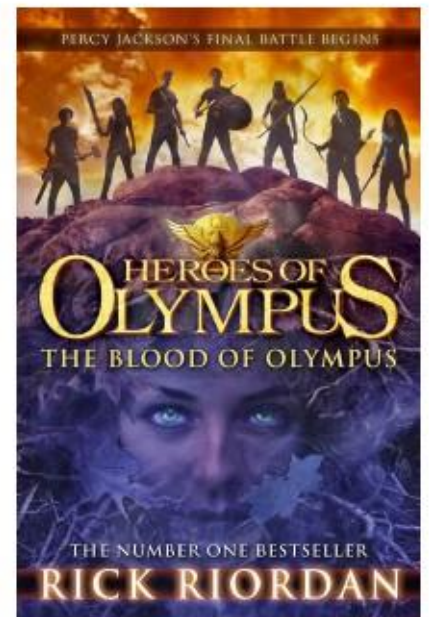

Packed full of fantasy, action and drama!

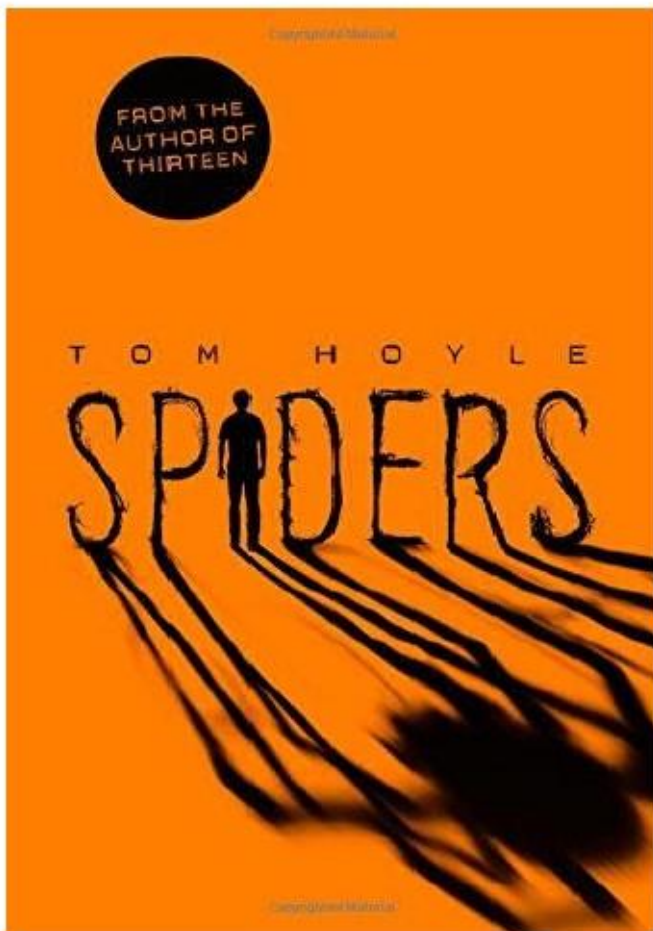

Action and drama with a military theme!

Post-Apocalyptic

More new adventures from our favourite Greek heroes!

A Review

Spiders by Tom Hoyle

This book follows up on the jaw-clenching first book of the series, Thirteen.

After an uneventful year after the death of Coron, Adam once again finds himself in the midst of cult drama, after leaving for a ski trip with his school.

“Spiders” evolves around his escape from Castle Dreich and his meeting with his rescuer, Abbie who helps and the thirteen others, along with hundreds of cult members to safety after being drugged into seeing the “demons of the world”.

The book along with its previous book takes time to understand as the plots only start to fall into place towards the end.

This book is suitable for both genders but not for all ages as the tension can get hard to handle, overall this book is a must read and you'll be stuck in Adam's adventure until the very end.

Spring Term 2015
Issue 2